AUSTRALIAN 'SASSIETY'

Australian 'sassiety' is a hollow heartless bedizened swarm of sycophantic snobs and snobbness.

(The Sydney Bulletin, 1887.)

LORRAINE'S ROUNDUP

Well our May meeting turned out to be a very full Program. Both Barrels band of the month was a great start to the day. Our first walk up artist was a newcomer, Bill Langhorne with some nice acoustic guitar playing. Margaret Kuno, gave a lovely rendition of the Magnolia Tree nice touch for Mother's Day. Best wishes Margaret on your overseas trip.

The duo Travis & Dallas List always sing something special for us.

Ever popular Alf Golan was next, he has been appearing at lots of shows lately, also working on a new cassette, Good Luck Alf.

Mick Bergen, I call him Adelaide's Slim Dusty, had son Kevin with him, great songs, fellas.

Len Wakefield sang the old favourite Tramp's Mother, and he helped yours truly to yodel and old Wilf Carter number. Ian List went solo, it was his birthday, also the very day 30yrs ago he got his first and drivers licence. So now we know how old he is, originally from Queensland, so working out his age by his drivers licence may be a bit tricky.

Our workshops have unearthed some fine talent with lots of help from Kiwi Country & Country Bumpkin who started the line up off, with a couple of great songs.

Then we had Ian O'Connor, Glenys Webster, Margaret George, Dennis Veran, Joy Champion, Helen Whelan, Ian Maelden, Jodie Nance, Dianne Schulz and the a nice finish with Kiwi Country joining Country Bumpkin. Well done, to everyone in the workshop line up.

Special guest for the day was Jim Chamings, terrific to hear some old country songs, sang like they should be.

The Three Decades were along, the harmony was great.

Len Moyle a newcomer sang a good selection of songs, also Barbara Sanderson who with her sister, known as Double trouble went solo for the day.

Merv Rayson and cousin Howard always popular, were next. They were followed by Kathy Harrison, Debbie Whearlen, Ron Madison, nice bit of yodelling Ron and Val Power, Oh Boy, what lovely sound.

It was a great afternoon of old, new, folk and country rock songs and music, thanks to everyone and a very special thanks to the band BOTH BARRELS, for staying on later than usual, nobody wanted to go home.

Bye for now
Lorraine

ROB'S RECORD REVIEW.

What a month for new releases from Sony Music - Dolly Parton - Eagle When She Flies - is her best for years, country NOT pop, listen to the track rockin' Years, a beauty. George Jones - Friends In High Places - duet album to celebrate Jones's 20yrs with the label. overall good selection.

New artist include Joe Diffie a singer, songwriter from Nashville with the potential to be around on the strength of A 1000 Winding Roads. Doug Stone's first also is impressive and his vocals grow on you favourably. Mary Chapin Carpenter's - Shooting Straight in the Dark - is her third US release but her first local, but is not as good countrywise as her earlier releases.

From RHINO USA we have Country Guitar, Vol. 1 & 2, absolutely great, although excompilations all tracks are representative of variations in guitar styles of playing ranging from Mother Maybell Carter of the 30's to Albert Lee, Merl Haggard, etc. Some tracks are jazz influenced but it is still brilliant. Also on Rhino is the Willie Nelson, CD, - Nite Life - to come Patsy Cline early recordings & Bob Willis.

Warner Music released - Highway 101 - Greatest Hits - with two new tracks, up tempo hard country with vocalist Paulette Carlson - Good. Also two midpriced CD's compilations - Country Honky Tonk & Country Duets both good value. Upcoming Hank Williams Jnr. - Pure Hank & Travis Tritt. Noticed that Brenda Lee has a local release, at last but country (I'm told not).

Well the best till last Rich River Records has Wayne Horsburgh's - Singing Cowboy - all good typical Wayne material - full of class deserving the support of all CM followers - will 2TM actually play this one, you can by ordering toll free on (008) 033900 you will not be disappointed. RRR also has Judy Stone's - Cowboys Sweetheart - all older style material worth a second listen.

The Double LP - Tamworth Tapes - a good local compilation which includes the Buddy Williams Survival Track to my knowledge not previously released. Col Millington's best trucking album - Midnight Flyer & Country Teardrops - a USA compilation made up the RRR package. I have a catalogue of all other RRR for anyones perusal.

I would like to close with my imports this month - Hank Snow - Singing Ranger Vol.2., 4 CD's, 1953-58 - Wilf Carter's, Dynamite Trail - The Bear Family Best - Jimmy Martin - two Jimmie Rogers, 1927-29 - from Rounder all CD's and good listening.

Have fun at Barmera and keep listening to SUV, Sunday's at 4.00pm.

PS. Had a phone call from Brian Letton re. his Gospel release, due any day now on cassette.

Always Country
