CLUB NEWS

Hi Folks! Well, what a couple of months we've had, with our June show featuring Warren Milera's band, and July featuring Wanetta's Country Plus, and to add to that we had Barmera's Riverland Country Music festival in between.

Both our shows were well attended with good crowds on both days, however, crowds at Barmera appeared to be below the normal size, but the weather wasn't real flash leading up to the festival and could have been the reason. I think those who braved the weather enjoyed themselves, as the Saturday of the talent quest there was a bit of a break and the weather was quite good.

We also have the Champion of Champions coming up on the 30th July 2005. Also the winner of the Len Wakefield award will be announced that night.

I have covered a bit of ground since Barmera, as I travelled to and performed at Birdsville, got rained in for a couple of days, before going on to Bedourie. I will also be playing for the Birdsville races on the 2nd and 3rd of September 2005, so if anyone is planning an outback trip I might just see you at the great outback spectacle.

We are on the countdown to our AGM, and having a great artist in Sandra Humphries and Crosswind. I hope those who were thinking about nominating for vacant positions on the committee have already nominated so as to avoid disappointment. It sure doesn't seem like two years since I've been in the chair but time sure has smoked along. I would like to sincerely thank all who have supported me and the committee in any way, and hope you will continue to get behind the committee people as it can be pretty trying at times.

I would also like to remind members that doors will open at 10.30am, and the meeting will commence at 11.00am. Well, there isn't much more to ramble on about, so I'll sign off and see you at the next show and AGM on the morning of the 7th August 2005

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP

JUNE

Well here we are half way through the year. Our June day featured new band of Warren Milera. I hope they stay together because they had very good sound and were a happy and friendly group of young men. We all know of the achievements of Warren during his career and send congratulations to him from the club. From Ouyen in Victoria "Chooka" Williams was in town so he sang us a few songs. It's always a pleasure to hear from "Chooka". And surprise, surprise, along came Freddie Buckskin. He sang for us with John Turner helping as well.

Our special guest for the day was Shane Teinaki from Tasmania, a very versatile artist touring Australia. We wish him well during his remaining time in the big smoke.

JULY

Wanetta's Country Plus, was our band for the day. It's always a pleasure to have Wanetta, one of the best females in country music. In the band was Irish Dan, always popular, having a great voice. It's good to have a band where they all have a go at singing, even just harmonising.

Our special guest for the day was Helen Downer, who had a band named Country Bumpkin, but is now going solo. She is a wonderful vocalist and songwriter, having new CD's featuring her own songs. She is dedicated to working with our Wildlife, her work is amazing, and if anyone wants to donate a little money for the food, it would be really appreciated.

Our next artist, Rael's then entertained us, and that she sure did, with the audience shouting for more. She is another top female artist in Adelaide, also a winner at the Port Pirie Festival. Congratulations Rael's!

Our president John Turner, made his appearance to showcase a couple of songs on his very first CD Well done, John!

Well our next show is our AGM. Don't forget to come early, remember we can't have our AGM without you! Doors open at 10.30am, for the meeting at 11.00am. See you there.

That's all for now. Keep it Country!

See you all next time,

Lorraine

Don't forget - First in ... First sat!!!

The committee had an interesting discussion about this matter and came to the following conclusion. Any member or visitor who has paid to come into the show has the right to sit in any seat that has not already been paid for.

For a couple of months we tried a system of prepaying for seats so that people could save seats for their friends. The system hasn't worked – it's been too hard to manage, so we are not doing it any more. But the rule hasn't changed!!

The August Show

SANDRA AND CROSSWIND

Sandra

Sandra began performing at an early age, entering her first Country Music talent quest at the age of 11. Over the next few years she received numerous awards and was well on the way to making a name for herself.

When she was 18, the Cross Wind band was formed with fellow musicians Phil Megaw, John Kuijpers, Bert Diegman and Henry Czerwonka. The group went on to make a name for themselves, on the country music circuit, including performances at the Tamworth, Mildura and Barmera festivals to name a few. Sandra has performed alongside many of the greats of Australian Country Music, from the Dead Ringer Band to Troy Cassar-Daly and Tania Kernaghan.

After 10 years with Cross Wind, and with a lot of encouragement from her peers and fans, she branched out as a soloist and in early 1993 she released her first solo album, 'Every Road', produced by Bill Chambers.

Special Guests ...

Laura Downing

Laura's well known to many of our members – a renowned yodelling comedienne, she's no slouch at straight vocals either, winning Best Female Vocalist recently at a major NSW festival. She's shortly on her way to the USA to compete for the yodelling world title – which will nicely complement her national titles! It's great to see her back at the club!

Kristy Cox

Welcome back to Kristy, too! A local girl from Mt Barker, she moved to the eastern states more than a year ago, to pursue her music career. She was well known and popular on the local country music scene - winning numerous awards, including the coveted Junior Champion of Champions in 2001 and the Senior Champion of Champions in 2001. We're lucky that her flying visit coincides with our show, so come along and catch up with her – and see how well she's going!

LEN WAKEFIELD MEMORIAL FUND

Subject to certain conditions, the purpose of the fund is to assist younger talent with proven ability: a) in entering talent quests throughout Sth Aust, Mildura and Tamworth, b) by payment or part payment of professional tuition, and c) towards the cost of a musical instrument. The fund is administered by the ACMC committee with expenditure limited to the interest from capital invested, with all payments made to the appropriate body and NOT to the awardee. Annually an awardee is chosen at an event deemed suitable by the Full Committee by a judging panel consisting of three suitably qualified ACMC committee members. Contributions to the fund, which may be made to the club treasurer at any time will be acknowledged in the club newsletter.

The September Show – MALLEE BLUE

Jesse and Frank James and the Younger brothers? They may look like a bunch of desperadoes but actually it's Noel Kneebone, Darren Gurney, Brenton Ahrns, Anthony Hodgen and Neil Chapman (not in that order) who are Mallee Blue, from Murray Bridge! The photo's couple of years old – I took it last time they performed at the club, so some of the fuzzy bits may have changed faces by now!

Proudly South Australian, this refreshing band specialises in Australian country and contains the song-writing talent to present much of their own material as well as delivering an excellent variety of country music – old and new. Don't miss it!!!

Special Guests ...

Brendan Beleski

Brendan, who's originally from New Zealand, has already spent time in Queensland and WA, before arriving in SA couple of years ago. He grew up surrounded by Country Music, playing in pubs and clubs from the tender age of ten, and released his first album, 'Country Boy' at 17. He was a Toyota Star Maker finalist in 2001 and released his first album, 'A Country Singer's Dream', the same year, following up in 2002 as a finalist in the Carrara CM Awards. He last performed at the club in August 2004 and since then he has gone on to win the APRA SA Country Song of the Year, and has a regular gig at the Woolshed, Hindley St (9.30pm 'til late). And a second CD is in the pipeline!

Tracy Stewart

They're back! Well, some of them, at least. The Sherrahs, played their last public gig a year ago at the SA Champion of Champions, and it's great to see some of them back in action again!

Stephen Sherrah

If you haven't read this lately ... do it now!!!

Remember, if you see a new face at the club, make them welcome. We have a vibrant club - let's make it a great place for everyone!!

Remember too, if you know someone in the club who is ill, let us know so we can express our best wishes. And if someone has died we'd like to express our condolences.

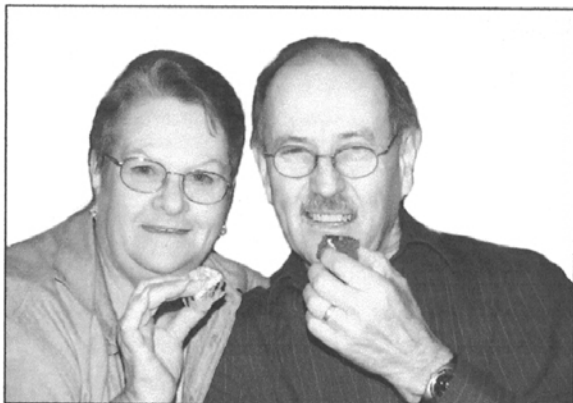

Remember too, also, if you want to advertise in the newsletter the rates are good - so if you want to buy or sell something, announce a wedding or a divorce, or just brag about something, this is the place!!

Remember too, also, as well, if you want to have a party at the club you can book a table, your guests can come in at members rates and there are other conditions and advantages – contact Lorraine for details.

Some husbands are living proof that a woman can take a joke.

The Country Clothesline

There go the profits!!!

Evonne and Graham feeding the inner person, and obviously enjoying it, at last club day. (Snapped by Paparazzi Pete aka Ian Fisk!)

Fred and Joy will be heading off soon for the wilds of Western Australia, again – an extended trip over 4 months, from October to January. We hope you have a safe trip, guys, and get to see and do lots of fun things!

Our wandering treasurer, Graham is back from a recent holiday in Tasmania. He was there when the Adelaide Crows played Hawthorn in Launceston, but inexplicably failed to attend – some funny excuse about better things to do! Really!

And while we're talking about the Apple Isle, there's a rumour about Tasmanians having 2 heads and I was recently told why! It's so that when they come to the mainland they'll have someone intelligent to talk to!

The Birthday Wishes for August & September

Hooray for these guys ...

Hope you got most of what you wanted!

Judy Powell, Lindsay Brooksby, Marina Anderson, Marion Ware, Vicky Squire, Elaine Castle, Marlene Roberts, Aileen McKinnon, Evelin Guley, Christine Newell, Kathleen Biggs, Robert Ince, Ross & Lorna Hitchcock, Aileen Formosa, Diane Morsbach, Rowland Evans, Lisa Meyers, Janice Dobner, Elsie Heness, Judith Promnitz, Robert Childs, Barbara Coupland, Joyce Crane, Ron Lillecrapp, Nanette Mayne, Dobin Dunstan, John Andrew, Lynnette McLaren, Fae King, Jack Mathews, June Pryde, Fred O'Neill, Barbara Fuller, Margaret Fenwick, Eva Tebble, Janice Wood, Robert McMahon, Richard Miller, Joan Paterson, Rosalie Feltus, Grace Vassallo, Ronald Banner, Dookie Smith, Laurel Smith, Max Wall and Marie Jones

Gee, if I had a dollar for every grey hair in that lot, I could stop buying lotto tickets!! Grey's so mature, don't you think!

Marie O'Connell is leaving Adelaide soon, moving to Port Broughton. Marie's been an identity on the local club scene for many years, treasurer of the Southern CM Club for yonks, a committee person at the ACMC, and a walking encyclopaedia of CM history and happenings. When I first started doing the newsletter and needed a photo of a local artist, I knew I could ring Marie and she'd have exactly what I needed. We'll miss you, Marie!

Now here's something you don't see often! After the next show Lorraine will be demonstrating how to use an up-right vacuum cleaner. Members are welcome to hang around and heckle!

The AGM ...

As you all know the AGM will be held before the August show – here are some ground rules, the same as last year!

The meeting starts at 11.00am sharp - only members will be admitted, so make sure you bring your current membership card.

Please try to be on time . If you're a member, you can still come in if you're late, but it's obviously disruptive and bad-manners ... and of course that's not you , is it?!

The meeting takes about an hour, so if you come with friends who are not members, or know of other non-members who attend and usually arrive early, please let them know that they won't be allowed in until the AGM has finished.

The catering table will start a half hour later than usual at 12.30 instead of 12 noon, so have an extra piece of toast for breakfast. Evonne and her co-horts are members too and will be delayed by the AGM!

Still on the subject of the AGM ... in accordance with the clause 10 (e) of the constitution, nominations for the vacant committee positions are ...

Position	Nominations
President	John Turner
Secretary	Bryan Sparks
Publicity Officer	No nomination
General Committee (3 positions)	Evonne Rayson ✓ Lisa Meyer Rob Smith ✓ Russel Byrne ✓ Warren Myers

A ballot will be required to fill the general positions.

A woman went into a boutique and asked the shop assistant "Can I try on that little black dress in the window?" The assistance smiled and said "Certainly, Madam, but wouldn't you prefer the privacy of the changing-room?"

Please feel free to scribble in the area below.

“His songs mixed the hard working-class truths of mainstream country with the romanticized yearning of urban folk with the cerebral consciously-poetic musings of much hippie-era rock.”

“Visually a cross between Clint Eastwood and Charles Bronson, all squint and biceps, yet age hasn’t withered his sex-appeal.”

Who is he? Well, the quotes were written about 10 years ago when he was pushing sixty – so now he’s pushing seventy, and hasn’t changed a whole lot (if it weren’t for the grey!).

Did you happen to catch Enough Rope with Andrew Denton last week? A very interesting interview with Kris Kristofferson! And since I’ve got a page to fill, I thought I’d do a profile of the legend – if that’s all right with you. Or if it’s not!

Born on 22nd June 1936, he was a native of Texas and the son of an Air Force general. He was a Golden Gloves boxer and went to college in California, where he earned a Rhodes scholarship to study literature. Dropping out in 1960 he joined the US army and became a helicopter pilot, gained the rank of captain and became an English teacher at West Point.

In 1965 he resigned his commission and moved to Nashville to become a song-writer, which involved a stint as a janitor, sweeping floors in music studios. Here he met Johnny Cash and with great persistence eventually earned Cash’s support. In fact Cash’s live performance of ‘Sunday Mornin’ Comin’ Down’ may be considered a turning point for Kris. The song went on to become 1970’s Song of the Year. Roger Miller recorded ‘Me and Bobby McGee’ which was later turned into a rock classic by Janis Joplin.

The silver screen beckoned and he made his debut film in ‘The Last Movie’ in 1971, obviously not prophetic since he’s gone on to make more than 80 films including ‘A Star is Born’ with Barbara Streisand and some far less memorable. His acting career crashed after he appeared in the 1980 western epic ‘Heaven’s Gate’ that showed white treatment of native Americans distinctly unfavourably. He became virtually unmarketable and in the Denton interview Kris left no doubt of his opinion of the political interference that condemned ‘Heaven’s Gate’ to oblivion.

His natural laid-back appeal won out and he made the ultimate come-back when he teamed with fellow country music superstar, Willie Nelson in 1984’s ‘Songwriter’ for which he earned an Oscar nomination for Original Song Score.

He’s been married 3 times and has 8 children from those unions, as well as 2 adopted children.

In more than forty years in the country music industry Kris has written literally dozens and dozens of songs, which have been performed by the best in the business. ‘Me and Bobby McGee’ has been performed by just about everybody and it’s such a classic song that you’ve probably never heard a bad version! ‘Help Me Make It Through The Night’ is another classic, as is ‘For the Good Times’.

His output has been prolific and justly rewarded with several Grammys for both song-writing and performing, and many more Grammy nominations - in addition to the Oscar nomination for ‘Songwriter’ and a Golden Globe for his role as the alcoholic has-been singer in ‘A Star is Born’.

The CV is pretty impressive – boxer, scholar, poet, pilot, teacher, singer/songwriter, actor, political activist and through it all a level headedness and modesty that goes a long way towards explaining the man’s appeal.

A personal quote :

“I think between us, Bill Clinton and I have settled any lingering myths about the brilliance of Rhodes scholars.”

I got on to the CMT (Country Music Television) website recently and found a couple of things of interest ...

Willie Nelson has the role of Uncle Jesse in the remake of The Dukes of Hazzard, which has just been released in the USA. I guess it'll be a few months before it gets out here!

Willie's also got a new CD out – all reggae! That'll be something!

'Stand by Your Man' by Tammy Wynette was named as the greatest song ever in a CMT poll.

Shania Twain is the country artist that most readers of Playboy magazine would like to pose for the magazine. Well, I didn't think it would be Willie!

Playboy readers obviously don't pay a lot of attention to CMT hype which described Rachel Warwick as "a striking UK pop country artist who rests somewhere between Shania Twain and Casey Chambers and bears an uncanny resemblance to Angelina Jolie." Now that's really something worth looking out for, and listening out for! Remember the name!
