CLUB NEWS

Entertainment Officer, Lorraine, really excelled with her choice of entertainment for our October club day. Peter Coad and The Coad Sisters as the feature band for the day, with Bill & Audrey occupying the special guest spot. To those who were unable to attend, you missed an absolutely fabulous day's entertainment with some of the most talented musicians our club has seen for some time.

With five committee members absent, I must say a sincere thank you to those club members who so willingly lent a hand in both the initial setting up of the hall and then in the cleaning and tidying up at the end of the day's proceedings. Your efforts were greatly appreciated, believe me.

Even though we had excellent entertainment on the day, the rumour mongers still managed to find plenty of time to voice their unfounded comments and criticisms of various matters of which it is fairly obvious they have little or no knowledge at all. To keep these poor souls happy, perhaps our newsletter editor might consider including a blank page headed 'Club Rumours' in each edition of Country Call, which may appease to some degree.

Seriously though, if you have a genuine complaint, are unhappy with something or somebody, or for any other reason at all, why not either approach a committee member or use the 'Suggestion Box' so that your grievance can perhaps be resolved rather than create unnecessary ill-feeling within the club by making unfounded comments? Just remember this, there are some of us who are prepared to get off our backsides and try and do something positive for our club. Can you say the same?

On a much brighter subject, it was great to see our old friend Brian Letton take out the Award at the Mildura Festival for Independent Artist of the Year. I don't think anybody deserved this honour more so than Brian who over the years has written and performed some really outstanding material without really receiving recognition from the industry. As it happened, the award was received on his first wedding anniversary, so what a way to celebrate. On the subject of the anniversary, Jan and I took the liberty to present an 'Anniversary Card' to Michelle and Brian on behalf of all ACMC members. They were thrilled that the club remembered.

I am really pleased to be able to report to members that our club now has a patron, and, it is none other than Brian Letton. In hindsight, it would have been great to have been able to announce this at our club's tenth birthday show last February, but the thought only occurred after Brian's award win at the Mildura Festival, and was put to committee at its most recent meeting with all being in complete agreeance. Over the past few years our club has, on a number of occasions, hosted Brian during his tours, and now, after living most of his life in Western Australia, he has returned here to settle in Port Lincoln. At this stage it isn't known when Brian will be passing our way again, so it may take some time before he will attend our club and be presented with his patron's badge, etc. It is my sincere hope that all members will agree with the decision to have Brian Letton as our club patron, and I don't know of anyone who would be more worthy. Please let's know what you think!

Well, for once there are other items which could be included, but space prevents same, so until next club day,

Regards for now,
Don W (President)

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP

Very quickly we are coming to the end of 1999. I believe our new venue has made our club days successful, together with Great Country Music, lovely facilities, and friendly Bar Staff.

Peter Coad and Sisters once again proved what a talented Trio they are. The happy banter between songs was great, and the use of all the different instruments by the girls was superb. The Yodelling once again proved very popular. We will see them once again next year round about the same time.

The date is yet to be confirmed.

Our Special Guests Bill and Audrey were the ideal guests for the day. Once again we had the happy banter between them and they sang some great old style songs, lovely harmony, and Audrey's solo was great.

If you have a favourite band or artist come over and tell Jan or myself, and we'll try to fulfil your wishes. Some artists high on the list we may not be able to afford, but will try and negotiate.

Don't forget to FINALISE your NEW YEARS EVE tickets in November.

It was nice to see our Past President Bob Johnstone and Sandra, also Dianne and Ian O'Connor (past committee members) along too.

Bye for now,.

*Deepest Sympathy to June and Bryan Sparks

on the passing of Bryan's father on 25.10.99*

This is a busy time of year for fans of country music - festivals galore... Mildura, Port Pirie and Broken Hill. Some people went to one, some got to two and a few addicts got to all three. There's no truth to the rumour that Gary Trenery and Joy Champion over-dosed on country music although both were taken poorly in Mildura and spent some time at the hospital.

There's a lot more country music (check out the Special Events list) in the next few months, so take it easy everyone, and enjoy it all!!

The Country Clothesline

November is a very busy month for the Adelaide Country Music Club

Normal club day (which should be a ripper!) is on the 7th.

On the 21st the club is supporting the Rick Pace CD Launch at the Slovenian Club. Rick has performed a number of times at the club this year, and I'm sure we all wish him well!! Check out the flyer and Rick's bio for further information about the launch.

On the 28th we're having our Christmas show. Due to prior commitments our venue is not available on the 1st Sunday of December so we are having the December show a week early - don't miss it!

Congratulations to Lennette Jorgenson and Les Lindquist whose wedding on October 16th was a lovely affair. Good luck, from all at the club.

Welcome back to our treasurer, Dean Bevis, and wife Shirley, who have returned from their extended holiday caravanning right up the east coast. I know it's hard but someone has to do it.

Christmas is approaching at a rate of knots - the club would like donations for a Christmas hamper to be raffled at the Christmas show for the Len Wakefield Memorial Fund - so if you're coming to either of the next couple of shows how about bringing along some festive goodies to donate! It would be greatly appreciated!

I missed a couple of birthdays last month - Fred Champion racked up another one, and so did I!! Hope your day was as good as mine, Fred.

Don't forget, if you've got a birthday, wedding, christening or divorce you want people to know about let me know and I'll put it in here - probably. Which reminds me, congratulations to Jean Hiscock who has just become a grandmother again!! And welcome to the world Matthew James Cope!!

Raelene Baker almost escaped - but my spies tell me she aged a year at our last show. Best wishes, Raelene, even if they are a little late.

And one that's not late - committee member Marilyn Cummins has a birthday coming up - on November 15th. Hope you have a lovely time Marilyn!

Deepest sympathy to the family and friends of our club member Brian Baker of Taperoo who passed away on 3rd October.

The committee and members also wish to extend sincere condolences to Helen Downer and her family on the passing of her father Reg Nance on 6th October Catering at the Christmas show (On 28th November) will include a Chicken and Salad lunch for $4.00. Orders can be given to Evonne at the November 7th show, or phoned to her on 8391 1363 by 21st November.

DON'T FORGET THE KIDS' CHRISTMAS PARTY

Use this form to let the organisers know which kids (under 12 years) will be attending - grand-parents can nominate 2 grand-children.

RICK PACE

Guitarist - Singer - Songwriter - Entertainer

It all started in a town called Alice Springs at a venue called the Stuart Arms hotel and continued on through the Territory and throughout Australia touring with the Buddy Williams Show.

Inspiration to sing and entertain came from people such as "Cowboy" Bob Purtell and Kevin King. Rick has toured with Bluey Francis & Gordon Parsons and was a guest on the Jimmy Little Show with Reg Poole & The Col Hardy Band.

As a drummer in Sydney and Queensland, Rick decided to have a go up front and became male vocalist with one of South Australia's top bands, Buckshot, during which time the group won The Bands Awards at the Riverland Country Music Festival. He also formed a winning duo and took 2nd and 3rd prize for two consecutive years. This year Rick was given the honour of being the support act for "The Lone Rangers" - one of the top bands from Western Australia at the Riverland Music Festival.

As a songwriter Rick achieved a place in the top five at the 1999 awards in Tamworth and has just released his debut album "The Territory Cowboy".
