CLUB NEWS

She did it again, Lorraine I mean. Peter Coad and the Coad Sisters with Bill and Audrey as special guests for our October show, then in November we get The Sherrahs with Reg Poole as special guest. I do believe that spending $5 and then enjoying four and a half hours of this high standard of entertainment is really top value for our club members, and I also believe that there are a few further great surprises over the next few months. Enough said.

With only three weeks between club shows this time, there isn't a great deal of time to waste, however it would be remiss of me if I didn't mention an important show at our club on Sunday, 21 November (refer advert. in newsletter). I am of course referring to the CD launch by Rick Pace who has been a club performer at a couple of our shows. I have heard the album entitled "The Territory Cowboy" and it is excellent, so come along and hear Rick perform these songs backed by a team of excellent musicians. Apart from Rick, there will also be a couple or three other local artists on stage during the afternoon, so it makes for a great show. Rick has gone to a lot of trouble to make sure the launch is a success, so please come along and give your support, you won't be disappointed.

Saturday, 4 December is Norwood Xmas Pageant day, and once again our club has been invited to participate, so if any member would like to join us you are free to do so. Starting point is the northern end of Sydenham Rd, Norwood, and move off time is 10.00am, although committee members will be attending at 9.00am to decorate our float, etc. It is a great fun outing for all, and the choice is yours as to whether you ride or walk the pageant route. Perhaps I should mention that we retain the country music theme as Key Country Band will be performing on the truck throughout.

Although it is still several weeks to Christmas (it really is!), this will be our last edition of 'Country Call' for the year, so I will take this opportunity to extend Season's Greetings not only to our members, but also to the many great friends we now have at The Slovenian Club, and to wish one and all a safe and Happy New Year. I am sure everyone will agree that our club has had a great year 1999, may it have an ever greater year 2000.

Regards to all,

Don W [President]

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP

We are getting closer to the end of the century. Hoping to go into the year 2000 with some new ideas - please read the "Stop Press" news spot.

Well, I guess the last two club days prove that members enjoy the true sounds of country music - it's still dance music, but nice enough to just sit back, relax and listen.

Thank you to everyone for giving your attention to the artists who perform without the band.

The Sherrahs band are a great band that has great musicians and great vocals. Their harmonies are a pleasure to listen to, and each one can stand up and give solo performances. Thanks, Tracey, for the yodelling song! Christine Sherrah (mother of band members Tracey and Steven) also performed some great songs. We can remember the days when they were Kiwi Country - even father (Kevin) can sing a note or two!!

Heath Austin - first time at the club - gave a most enjoyable solo performance. The night before, Heath won the male vocal section at the Gawler festival, and the previous weekend he appeared at the Pt Adelaide Country Music, Food and Wine Festival (the Gina Jeffreys concert). I'm sure he's a performer we'll hear more of.

And our special guest, Reg Poole! What can one say? He gets better and better - you could sit and listen to him all day. And he's such a friendly person, all round.

Thanks to all - it was a lovely day!!

Bye for now,.

RICK PACE

Guitarist - Singer - Songwriter - Entertainer

It all started in a town called Alice Springs at a venue called the Stuart Arms Hotel and continued on through the Territory and throughout Australia touring with the Buddy Williams Show.

Inspiration to sing and entertain came from people such as "Cowboy" Bob Purtell and Kevin King. Rick has toured with Bluey Francis & Gordon Parsons and was a guest on the Jimmy Little Show with Reg Poole & The Col Hardy Band.

As a drummer in Sydney and Queensland, Rick decided to have a go up front and became male vocalist with one of South Australia's top bands, Buckshot, during which time the group won The Bands Awards at the Riverland Country Music Festival. He also formed a winning duo and took 2nd and 3rd prize for two consecutive years. This year Rick was given the honour of being the support act for "The Lone Rangers" - one of the top bands from Western Australia at the Riverland Music Festival.

As a songwriter Rick achieved a place in the top five at the 1999 awards in Tamworth and has just released his debut album "The Territory Cowboy".

It's every bloody where....

Country goes to kindergarten - Tim McGraw and Faith Hill have been signed to do an appearance on "Sesame Street" which is likely to be shown sometime next year.

Country goes to Hollywood - Randy Travis and Reba McEntire have just starred in a 3 hour television special spotlighting country stars who've made the transition from Nashville to the big screen.

Country goes political - Al Gore (the US Vice President) whose campaign headquarters is in Nashville has been using "Ready to Run" by the Dixie Chicks and "Rock This Country" by Shania Twain to fire up supporters.

SPECIAL GUEST - DWAYNE ELIX

Originally from the mid-north of SA, Dwayne is now based in Sydney where he performs regularly with his band, The Engineers.

An all-round performer, his musical skills range from fine vocals and song-writing to an array of instruments, including guitar, mandolin, dobro, banjo, dulcimer, bass and lap steel.

In 1993 Dwayne was a Star Maker finalist, and he has a stack of other awards to his credit!

I may have said this before (if so blame Lorraine).....Definitely not to be missed!!!

The Country Clothesline

Has your news-letter arrived in plenty of time for the next show? We've had a number of complaints that it hasn't turned up until very late. The newsletter is regularly posted out on the Thursday, 9 days before the next show, so if you believe Australia Post's boast about next day delivery everyone in the metro area should receive it on the Friday with more than a week to spare. This often isn't happening but apart from complaining next time the news-letter is posted there's not much we can do.

Congratulations to Joy and Fred Champion who became great grandparents on 4th Nov. Kirkley Thomas Whiting (not tommy whiting) weighed in at 5lb 10oz which in the newfangled system is about 2.56 kilograms.

Dave Gray (the other one, not ugly Dave) has a new CD out - 'Songs of Lindsay Laurie'. If you're interested see Lorraine - she has a few copies to sell for Dave.

Lots of birthdays - some late, some imminent....

Happy birthdays to Ron and Connie Cossons of Kadina who both have their big days in November.

Les Kerber also just racked up another one on 11th Nov - hope you had a good one Les!!

Dot Burke will trouble the scorers again very soon - best wishes Dot, from all at the club.

Some committee members are aging more gracefully than others, and some are aging more quickly than others - Adrian May will be a year older on 1st Dec, and both Jan Worden and June Sparks have birthdays on 7th Dec. (It's your guess who's graceful and who's quick..)

Don't forget - the Club is looking for donations of Christmas fare to raffle at the Christmas show (on 28th Nov). Proceeds will go to the The Len Wakefield Memorial Fund so please, if you can manage to give something festive bring it with you to the Rick Pace CD launch on the 21st Nov or to the Christmas show the 28th Nov.

Don't forget - the Christmas show on 28th starts with the kids' Christmas Party at 11.30am, so doors will open at 10.30am, an hour earlier than usual.

There's a rumour that Santa will be here again (probably with the same two ~~old~~ goats reindeer he had last year!)

Catering at the Christmas show (On 28th November) will include a Chicken and Salad lunch for $4.00. Orders can be phoned to her on 8391 1363 by 21st November.

Presto Chango

A man is walking down a city street when he spots a frog. This strikes him as odd, so he stops and stares at it. He jumps when it begins to speak.

"Please help me mister. I'm a beautiful woman altered by a horrible curse, but if you just kiss me I will turn back into my original form and submit to you in any and all ways.

The old man is well pleased with this, and pops the frog into his pocket. He walks home, puts the frog on the dresser and undresses. But then, he puts on his pajamas, climbs into bed, and turns out the light.

The frog cries out, "Aren't you going to kiss me?"

"No, at my age I'd rather have a talking frog," replies the tired old man.
